WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

As a nationally prominent university, Western Kentucky University engages the globe in acclaimed, technologically enhanced academic programs. An inspiring faculty promotes entrepreneurial success and a unique campus spirit to attract an intellectually exciting and diverse family of the nation's best students.

WKU provides students with rigorous academic programs in education, the liberal arts and sciences, business, and traditional and emerging professional programs, with emphasis at the baccalaureate level, complemented by relevant associate and graduate-level programs.

The University places a premium on teaching and student learning. WKU faculty engage in creative activity and diverse scholarship, including basic and applied research, designed to expand knowledge, improve instruction, increase learning, and provide optimum service to the state and nation. The University directly supports its constituents in its designated service areas of Kentucky with professional and technical expertise, cultural enrichment, and educational assistance. The University encourages applied research and public service in support of economic development, quality of life, and improvement of education at all levels, especially elementary and secondary schools. In particular, WKU faculty contribute to the identification and solution of key social, economic, scientific, health, and environmental problems within its reach, but particularly throughout its primary service area.

Maintaining a campus of distinctive history and character, WKU sustains a student population of increasing quality. It fulfills its responsibility for access through its Bowling Green Community College, regional campus programs in Glasgow, Owensboro and Elizabethtown/Radcliff/Ft. Knox, and distance/on-line learning.

WKU's commitment is to ensure value in a holistic learning experience through high standards for student achievement and conduct, a strong faculty, technological innovation, personalized attention, broad access, and public accountability for actions and outcomes.

WKU recognizes that its mission continues to evolve in response to regional, national, and global changes, and the need for lifelong learning.

WKU ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Western Kentucky University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to support the university vision by providing a comprehensive, high quality education for student-athletes and to serve the university community, alumni, and friends through success and distinction within an environment of uncompromising integrity. The WKU Athletic Department seeks to be a source of pride for the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and to be recognized as a nationally prominent program by consistently winning Sun Belt Conference championships and achieving frequent success in NCAA post-season competitions. It is also imperative that we compete with dignity, honor and respect in upholding and advancing WKU's rich history and tradition.

We must operate in a manner that embraces the guidelines and principles established by the NCAA and Sun Belt Conference, which promote the principles of sportsmanship and ethical conduct. Fair and equitable opportunities will be a priority and will be provided for student-athletes and staff to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the Division I level regardless of gender and ethnicity. Our ultimate purpose is to provide a world class academic and athletic experience for our student-athletes resulting in the vital personal development necessary for long term success.

Travis Hudson

Head Coach
17th Season
376-172 Record

Travis Hudson enters his 17th season on the Hill as head coach of the Lady Toppers, looking to add to a career that already has him atop the WKU coaching records books, as well as ranking second in the Sun Belt Conference in career conference wins.

Hudson led WKU to seven-straight Sun Belt Conference East Division Championships from 2000 through 2006, and appeared in eight of 10 SBC Tournament Championships matches through the 2010 season. Over that stretch, the Lady Toppers have compiled a 273-74 (.786) record and a 117-17 (.873) mark in Sun Belt Conference matches. WKU advanced to the conference championship game in 2010 and won 25 matches for the ninth consecutive season and 11th time under Hudson.

In fact, the success the Lady Topper program has enjoyed earned Hudson a seven-year contract extension in the summer of 2008 — keeping him on the Lady Topper sidelines at least through the 2016 season.

The 2010 season also saw the Lady Toppers earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time since 2002. Following the regular season, junior Tiffany Elmore and Lindsay Williams, sophomore Jordyn Skinner and freshman Melanie Stutsman were named to the All-Sun Belt Conference teams. Stutsman was also named SBC Freshman of the Year.

Stutsman and Elmore added to their honors as they were both named to the AVCA All-South Region Team. Stutsman was named the South Region Freshman of the Year, along with earning a spot on the 14-person first team. She went on to become the fourth Lady Topper to earn All-America honors, being named an AVCA honorable mention All-American.

In 2008, the Lady Toppers claimed the program's third Sun Belt Conference Tournament title sweeping all three opponents, Middle Tennessee, Florida International and New Orleans, on their way to the league's NCAA Tournament at-large bid. After winning the championship, the Lady Toppers competed in the school's fourth NCAA Tournament in Champaign, Ill. The Lady Toppers also finished the season with a No. 34 ranking in the final AVCA Top 25 poll.

Following the season, seniors Megan Argabright and Julia Noe were named to the AVCA All-South Region Teams and also picked up All-American honors for their performances during the season. After being named an All-American during the first three years during her career, Argabright became the first Female WKU athlete to be named a four-time All-American.

The 2007 season saw the Lady Toppers make a bit of history. Through the first 26 years of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament, the Sun Belt Conference had never received an at-large bid. That changed in 2007 however, as a top-notch schedule, a No. 36 ranking in the RPI, and a 27-9 final record all added up to an invitation to the "Big Dance" for the Lady Toppers. It marked the third NCAA Tournament appearance for WKU in six seasons, with the Lady Toppers earning the Sun Belt's automatic bid with league tournament championships in both 2002 and 2005.

The '05 Lady Toppers rank among the best teams in school history, finishing the year 31-3 (a school-record .912 winning percentage) and going undefeated in Sun Belt Conference play (12-0). WKU also ran through the conference tournament, claiming its second championship and berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Toppers had the best start in school history opening the season 18-1 — including wins at Indiana and Georgia Tech. They went on to win 27 of their last 28 matches en route to the Sun Belt championship as Hudson earned SBC Coach-of-the-Year honors for the third time since 2000. WKU also gained national recognition, climbing to 34th in the USA Today/CSTV Coaches Poll.

The '05 season also produced another first in Lady Topper volleyball history as Caron Blotch and Argabright were named to the American Volleyball Coaches' Association All-America team. Hudson also earned his second AVCA South Region Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Argabright went on to become the first multi-time All American in Lady Topper history as Hudson led her and the 2006 squad to a seventh straight division title with a 14-3 league mark and a 26-10 overall record. She also earned All-America honors following the 2007 season.

Hudson's 2004 squad opened the campaign 16-1, with the only loss coming in a four-game setback to nationally-ranked Stanford. WKU went on to capture its fifth-straight Sun Belt Conference East Division Championship with an 11-3 league mark, and advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament championship match for the fourth consecutive season. The Lady Toppers also posted their seventh consecutive winning campaign, finishing 26-7, and became the first Lady Topper team to earn votes in the coaches poll, climbing as high as 32nd with nine votes.

The 2003 team continued the championship trend, capturing another ivision championship with a 12-2 mark, and again advancing to the Sun Belt 2003 team continued the championship trend, capturing another division championship with a 12-2 mark, and again advancing to the Sun Belt Tournament championship match in E.A. Diddle Arena. The program also reached a milestone as it finished in the top 50 in the final RPI for the first time in school history.

In 2002, Hudson became WKU's all-time winningest coach by knocking off New Mexico State in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament title match, capping off a school-record 19-straight wins to give the program its first-ever SBC championship and NCAA Tournament berth. Despite the graduation of three of the best players to suit up in Lady Topper history, the 2003 squad set school records for wins in a season with 33 en route to their third-straight SBC East Division title, all after being picked to finish third in their division by the league's coaches in the preseason poll.

Hudson's efforts hardly went unnoticed as he was named the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year in addition to earning the SBC's top honor for the second time in three years.

"This roll we have been on since 2000 is pretty amazing. Consistency is one of the toughest things to achieve in athletics," said Hudson. "Where this program is has so much to do with all the players that have walked through the doors of E.A. Diddle Arena to compete as a Lady Topper."

Beginning in 2000, the players who have suited up for WKU have transformed the Lady Toppers into the front runner in the Sun Belt Conference. The 2000 season set an early standard for success, which Hudson's squad has improved upon year-by-year. That year's team rolled to a 25-8 record, a No. 10 ranking in the final South Region poll, a No. 84 RPI rating and a share of the SBC East Division championship, WKU's first league title in nine years (and the second in school history). For his efforts, Hudson was named the 2000 Sun Belt Coach of the Year, becoming just the second WKU skipper to be so honored.

WKU followed the 2000 performance with an equally impressive 2001 campaign, finishing 24-6 and 13-1 in the Sun Belt Conference, winning the East Division championship outright. The Lady Toppers finished fifth in the final South Region poll, but more impressively were ranked fourth in the year's first poll — the highest ranking in school history.

WKU's recent success is due in no small part to the hard work Hudson has put into the program. He has slowly built the Lady Toppers from the ground up, installing a new desire and work ethic in his players to turn a 7-26 team into a seven-time reigning Sun Belt Conference East Division champion. The program's resurgence actually began with a remarkable 26-10 record in 1998, the nation's best one-season improvement (+17 wins) and a trip to the SBC Tournament championship match — WKU's first appearance in the title contest in seven seasons. Following a return trip to the tournament semifinals in 1999, the Lady Toppers began their remarkable run in 2000.

Hudson has also established himself as one of the top coaches not only in the Sun Belt, but in the country. Currently, in the category of coaches under 40 with 300 or more wins, Hudson ranks second in the country and first in Division I, right behind Bryan Snyder of Washington and Lee. He is also ranked fourth in the category of Division I coaches under the age of 40 with at least 200 wins and 22nd in the the nation.

In addition to his on-court successes, Hudson is fiercely proud of the achievements his players have produced in the classroom. He is a firm believer in living up to the term "student-athlete," and one can hardly argue with the results. The Lady Toppers boast a 100 percent graduation rate in Hudson's tenure, with six of his players earning academic all-district honors. In addition, Natalie Furry became the first WKU (and Sun Belt) volleyball player to earn Verizon Academic-All America recognition, winning a spot on the third team in 2000. Furthermore, WKU garnered an AVCA Team Academic Award six times, logging the second-best GPA in the nation (3.606) in 2000, and an equally impressive mark (3.56) in 2001. The Lady Toppers have also won or shared the WKU Female Scholar Team Award five times.

"Nothing brings me greater pride than the achievements of our athletes in the classroom," Hudson stated. "It is a great feeling to know that our graduating players are prepared to be successful for life."

Hudson also served as WKU's interim head coach on two occasions, once after Hulsmeyer left for Arkansas State in 1991, and again in the spring of 1995 following the departure of Hardaway. Later that year, Hudson was named the head coach at WKU, making him (at the time) the youngest head coach in the nation at age 24.

Hudson is the cousin of former Hilltopper basketball great Bob Daniels, who lettered for WKU from 1954-57. A graduate of nearby Edmonson County High School in Brownsville, Ky., Hudson captained both the varsity football and basketball teams, earning all-state honors in football as a prep. A 1994 graduate of WKU, Hudson holds a bachelor's degree in business management with a marketing emphasis. In 1996, he married the former Cindy Wiseman, a graduate of the University of Louisville's School of Allied Health with a degree in physical therapy. The couple has two sons, Tyler and Andrew.

Kristi Griffin
Assistant Coach
3rd Season

Kristi Griffin returns for a third season on the WKU volleyball staff as an assistant coach. Griffin spent four seasons at Jacksonville State University, where she also served as an assistant. At Jacksonville State, she helped guide the Gamecocks to back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference regular-season titles in 2006 and 2007, back-to-back OVC Tournament crowns in 2005 and 2006, and the school's first two trips to the NCAA Division I Tournament.

"Kristi worked at Jacksonville State for four years with Rick Nold, who I consider one of the top coaches in the country," said Lady Topper head coach Travis Hudson. "She is a terrific recruiter and is doing a great job training kids at a high level in our gym,

Prior to her coaching career at Jacksonville State, Griffin led the University of Southern Indiana, her alma mater, to a 21-9 record in her only season on the Screaming Eagles' coaching staff. She received a bachelor's degree in elementary education from USI in 2004.

Griffin, a native of Montgomery, Ind. and a graduate of Barr-Reeve High School, was a four-year starter for the University of Southern Indiana from 1999-2002 compiling an 87-35 overall record. She helped USI win its first ever Great Lakes Valley Conference regular season championship in 2000 and led USI to its first GLVC tournament title and a berth in the NCAA Tournament in 2002.

"Coach Hudson has built this program into a nationally ranked powerhouse," Griffin said. "I hope to help him continue the success they've achieved both on the court and in the classroom."

She currently ranks fifth in the school's record books in career digs with 1,153 and third in career service aces with 145. During her senior season at USI, she averaged a career-high 3.56 kills and 3.59 digs per game. A four-time Academic All-GLVC selection and three-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree, she was named to the Verizon Academic All-American First Team in her senior year.

Formerly Kristi Kavanaugh, she is married to Justin Griffin. The couple welcomed their first child, Jaxon, in July 2011.

Abbie Siljendahl
Graduate Assistant
1st Season

Abbie Siljendahl continues her career at WKU, beginning her first season as a graduate assistant on the Lady Topper coaching staff, after concluding her stellar playing career in 2009. Siljendahl graduated from WKU in the spring of 2009.

Siljendahl played in 420 sets over her four-year career as a Lady Topper. She tallied 723 kills, 123 assists, 384 digs and 191 total blocks during that time. Siljendahl set a career high with 218 digs as a junior during the 2008 season and posted 228 kills as a senior in 2009, also a career-best mark.

As a junior, she ranked third on the team in kills and had multiple kills in 34 matches during the year and recorded double-digit kills three times. Siljendahl recorded a season high 13 kills against FIU and a season-high .750 hitting percentage against MTSU at the Sun Belt Conference Tournament. Her performance earned her a spot on the SBC All-Tournament team for the first time in her career, leading WKU to the SBC Tournament Championship.

Siljendahl was a member of two NCAA tournament teams and the 2006 team that was SBC East Division Co-Champions.
